

THE ROEPER SCHOOL

WHERE GIFTED STUDENTS
LOVE TO LEARN

PROVIDING WHAT EVEN GREAT PUBLIC SCHOOLS CAN'T . . .

Low student-teacher ratios

Diversity — cultural, racial, socio-economic

Accelerated courses with greater depth

Community Service as part of the curriculum

Multiple extracurricular activities

Excellent college guidance & placement

DON'T SETTLE FOR A GREAT PUBLIC SCHOOL.

*CHECK OUT
WHAT A PRIVATE EDUCATION
AT ROEPER CAN DO FOR YOUR CHILD.*

Open Houses

LOWER SCHOOL

(PRESCHOOL THROUGH GRADE 5)

TUESDAY MORNINGS AT 9AM

MARCH 3 & APRIL 14, 2009

41190 WOODWARD AVENUE
BLOOMFIELD HILLS

MIDDLE/UPPER SCHOOL

(GRADES 6 THROUGH 12)

SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT 1PM

MARCH 15, 2009

1051 OAKLAND AVENUE
BIRMINGHAM

248.203.7317

WWW.ROEPER.ORG

THE ROEPER SCHOOL IS AN EQUAL-OPPORTUNITY INSTITUTION

special contributors

Barbara Deyo is a veteran of the industry, being recognized by Allure Magazine as "Best of the Best" in the country for her talents. Her work has been published in Redbook, Rolling Stone, People, Seventeen, Clear and more. She has worked with countless celebrities, such as Roselyn Sanchez, Bob Seger, Kid Rock, Dennis Quaid, Ethan Hawke and Kerrie Washington. She has also worked for NBC, UPN, CBS and Fox doing makeup for local and national news, as well as shows like Access Hollywood and Dateline NBC. She currently co-owns Touch Spa in Birmingham.

A native Detroiter and Wayne State theatre grad, Sarah Garza is currently studying design and management at Parsons the New School for Design in New York City. She works as a design assistant for Bryant Keller Inc. and lives in Brooklyn with her fiancé, Graig, and their mechanical dog, Taco.

Kelly McKay, a local fashion designer and freelance fashion writer, is a graduate of Central Michigan University's apparel design & merchandising program. Her passions include designing eco-friendly, beautiful clothing, art, writing, traveling and modeling. Her involvement in all aspects of the industry contributes to her accomplishments.

New Jersey native Joyce Wiswell lived in Manhattan and Santa Barbara before love brought her to Metro Detroit 13 years ago. Her byline can be seen in various publications, including Strut, Signature, Senior Living and Metro Parent.

Holly Q started her journey as a photographer as a student at Midwest School of Photography in Farmington Hills, where she studied and pursued the art of commercial photography. Since then, she has been working freelance, basing her career out of Southeast Michigan but traveling as often as possible. Her passion lies in fashion, commercial and editorial photography.